4. How we protect your personal data

- 4.1 We will not transfer your personal data outside the UK without your consent.
- 4.2 We have implemented generally accepted standards of technology and operational security in order to protect personal data from loss, misuse, or unauthorised alteration or destruction.
- 4.3 Please note however that where you are transmitting information to us over the internet this can never be guaranteed to be 100% secure.
- 4.4 We will notify you promptly in the event of any breach of your personal data which might expose you to serious risk.

5. Who else has access to the information you provide us?

- 5.1 We will never sell your personal data. We will not share your personal data with any third parties without your prior consent (which you are free to withhold) except where required to do so by law or as set out in the table above or paragraphs 5.2 and 5.3 below.
- 5.2 We may pass your personal data to third parties who are service providers, agents and subcontractors to us for the purposes of completing tasks and providing services to you on our behalf (e.g. to print newsletters and send you mailings). We do this for the purpose of our legitimate interests in operating the Club and for performing our contract with you. However, we disclose only the personal data necessary for the third party to deliver the service and we have a contract in place that requires them to keep your information secure and not to use it for their own purposes. It is possible that third parties may themselves engage others (sub-processors) to process your data. Where this is the case, third parties will be required to have contractual arrangements with their sub processor(s) that ensure your information is kept secure and not used for their own purposes.

- 5.3 We may also pass your personal data to the RYA for the purposes of carrying out surveys when it is in the legitimate interest of the Club and the RYA to do so. The RYA may use third parties to carry out the surveys but disclose only the personal data necessary for the third party to do so and will have a contract in place that requires the third party to keep your information secure and not to use it for their own purposes.

6. How long do we keep your information?

- 6.1 We will hold your personal data on our systems for as long as you are a member of the Club and for as long afterwards as it is in the Clubs' legitimate interest to do so or for as long as is necessary to comply with our legal obligations. We will review your personal data every year to establish whether we are still entitled to process it. If we decide that we are not entitled to do so, we will stop processing your personal data except that we will retain your personal data in an archived form in order to be able to comply with future legal obligations, e.g. compliance with tax requirements and exemptions, and the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
- 6.2 We securely destroy all financial information once we have used it and no longer need it.

7. Your rights

- 7.1 It is important that you understand what rights you have in respect of the Personal Data and Special Category Personal Data that we hold about you. To let us know that you wish us to exercise any of your rights outlined above please contact the Club Secretary secretary@WeybridgeBoating.org.uk.
- (a) The right to be informed (knowing how we will use your data). You have the right to be told how we will use your Personal Data – which is set out in This Notice.
 - (b) The right of access (being provided with copies of your data). You have the right to ask us to provide you with a copy of your Personal Data. We will supply any information you ask for as soon as possible but may take up to 1 month once we are satisfied as to your identity. We will not charge you for this. This is called a data subject access request.
 - (c) The right to rectification (changing incorrect information we hold). If you believe our records are inaccurate you have the right to ask for those records concerning you to be updated. Contact details for any requests can be found above.
 - (d) The right to be forgotten (erasure) (requesting deletion of your Personal Data). In some cases, you have the right to be forgotten (i.e. to have your Personal Data deleted from our database).
 - (e) The right to restrict processing (limiting how we use your data). In certain situations, you have the right to ask for processing of your Personal Data to be restricted because there is some disagreement about its accuracy or legitimate usage.

Weybridge Sailing and Recreational Boating Club

Data Privacy Policy

- (f) The right to data portability (moving your data in a useable format). You have the right to request the Personal Data you provided to us, in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format and/or transmit that data to a third party - in certain situations.
 - (g) The right to object (when we must stop processing your data). You have the right to object to us processing data purely for our legitimate interests. If you make such a request, we must stop processing your Personal Data unless: we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing, which override your interests, rights, and freedoms; or the processing is for the establishment, exercise, or defence of legal claims.
 - (h) The right not to be subject to automated decision-making including profiling (deciding solely by automated means without any human involvement). The right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing (including profiling) that produces legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affects you. The Club does not undertake automated decision making or profiling.
- 7.2 You have the right to take any complaints about how we process your personal data to the Information Commissioner:
- <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
0303 123 1113
- Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire SK9 5AF
- 7.3 For further information on each of those rights, including the circumstances in which they apply, please see the Guidance from the UK Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) on individuals' rights under the General Data Protection Regulation.
- 7.4 For more details, please address any questions, comments and requests regarding our data processing practices to the Club Secretary, Walton Lane Club House, Dorney Gardens, Walton Lane, Weybridge, Surrey KT13 8LU, secretary@weybridgeboating.org.uk
